The special issue devoted to MCPR2011, entitled Advances in Pattern Recognition Methodology and Applications, is ready and it will appear shortly in the International Journal Pattern Recognition Letters, published by Elsevier and included in JCR. Thank you very much to MCPR community for your contributions.

By the way, we encourage you to send contributions to the special issue devoted to MCPR2012, see CFP (below) for details. Also, we will appreciate if you distribute this CFP among your colleagues.

CALL FOR PAPERS
Pattern Recognition Letters
Special Issue on Supervised and Unsupervised Classification Techniques and their Applications

Aim and Scopes:
This special issue aims at capturing the latest advances of the research community working on Pattern Recognition Techniques and Applications. Topics of interest include, but are not limited to:
Novel techniques for supervised classification
Novel techniques for unsupervised classification
Feature and Instance selection
Feature extraction
Applications in bioinformatics, medicine, and data mining
Applications to non-ordinal and non-Euclidean data

Important Dates:
Manuscript submission deadline: February 15, 2013
First notification: June 14, 2013*
Revised manuscript submission: August 16, 2013*
Notification of final decision: September 21, 2013*
Publication of special issue: first date available after September 21, 2013* (* tentative)

Submission of Manuscripts
Authors are encouraged to submit their papers electronically by using online manuscript submission at: http://ees.elsevier.com/patrec/

To ensure that all manuscripts are correctly included into the special issue, it is important that authors select the acronym "SUCTA" of this special issue when they reach the "Article Type" step in the submission process.

All papers will be rigorously refereed and will undergo a standard review process of PRL. The length of your manuscript should not exceed 7500 words, including maximal 10 figures/tables.

Submission Period
The Elsevier Editorial System will be set to allow authors to upload their manuscripts to SUCTA in the period January 14, 2013 - February 15, 2013.
